

images@nfb.ca

An animated story about anger,
relationships
and war.

Story retelling pptx, rewriting,
story analysis, templates
discussion

The Big Snit

Watch the Christmas story. Retell the story in your own words. Include detail and sequence your writing.

RETELL draw and write

Story: _____ Author: _____

Who:

Where:

Problem:

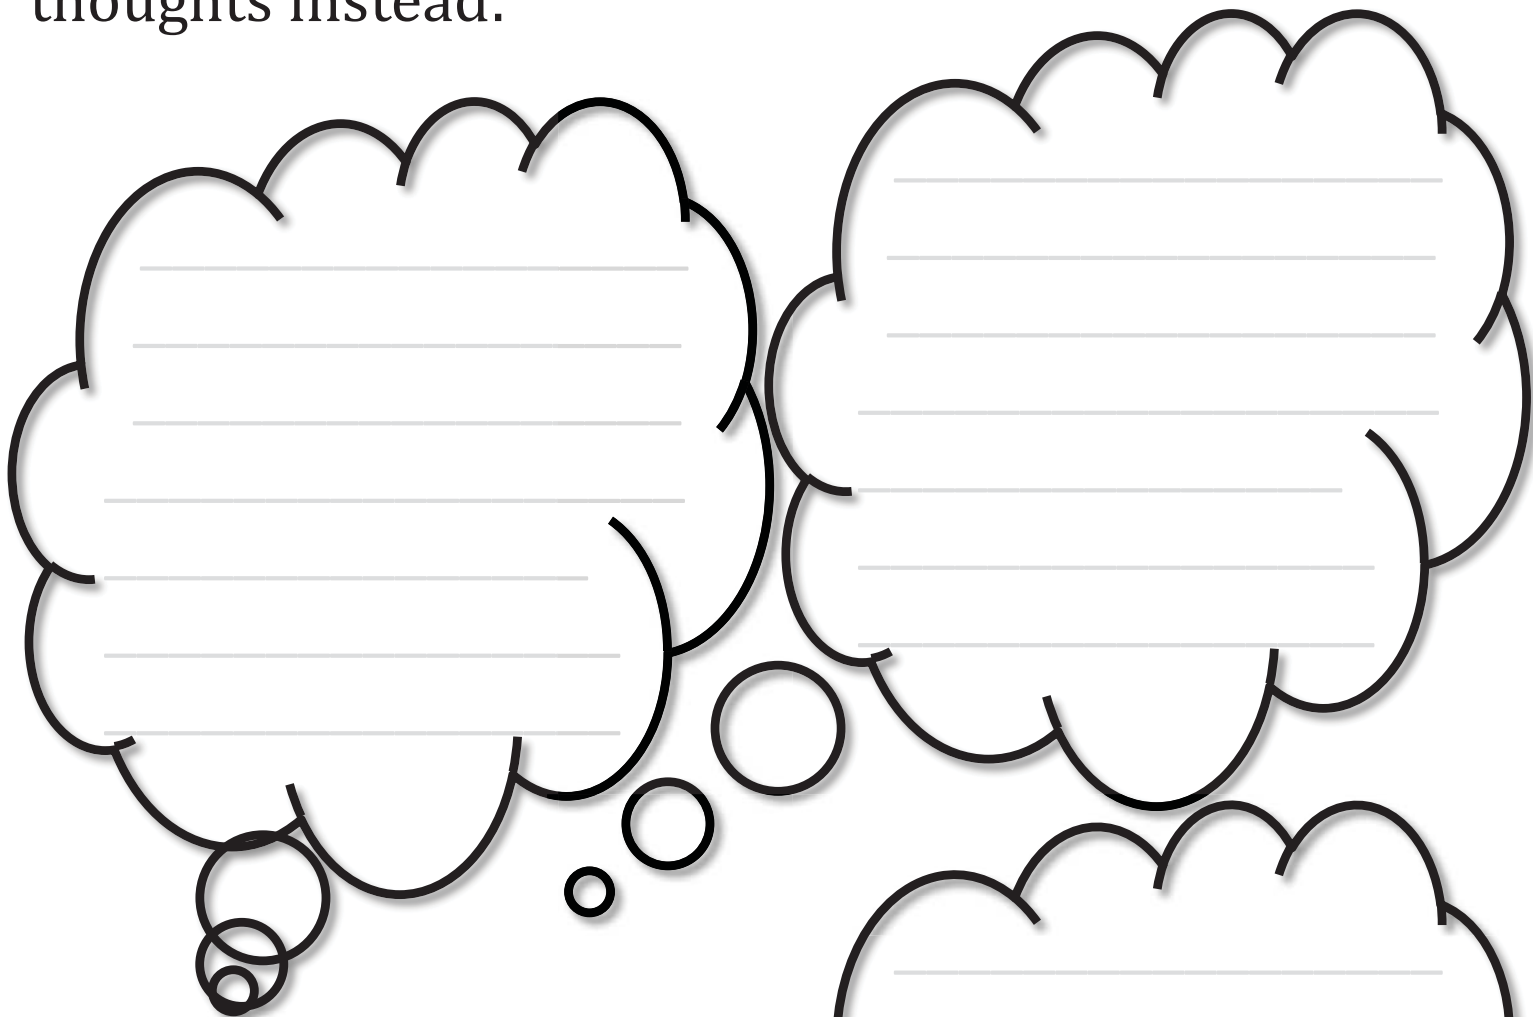

Solution:

My Favorite Part:

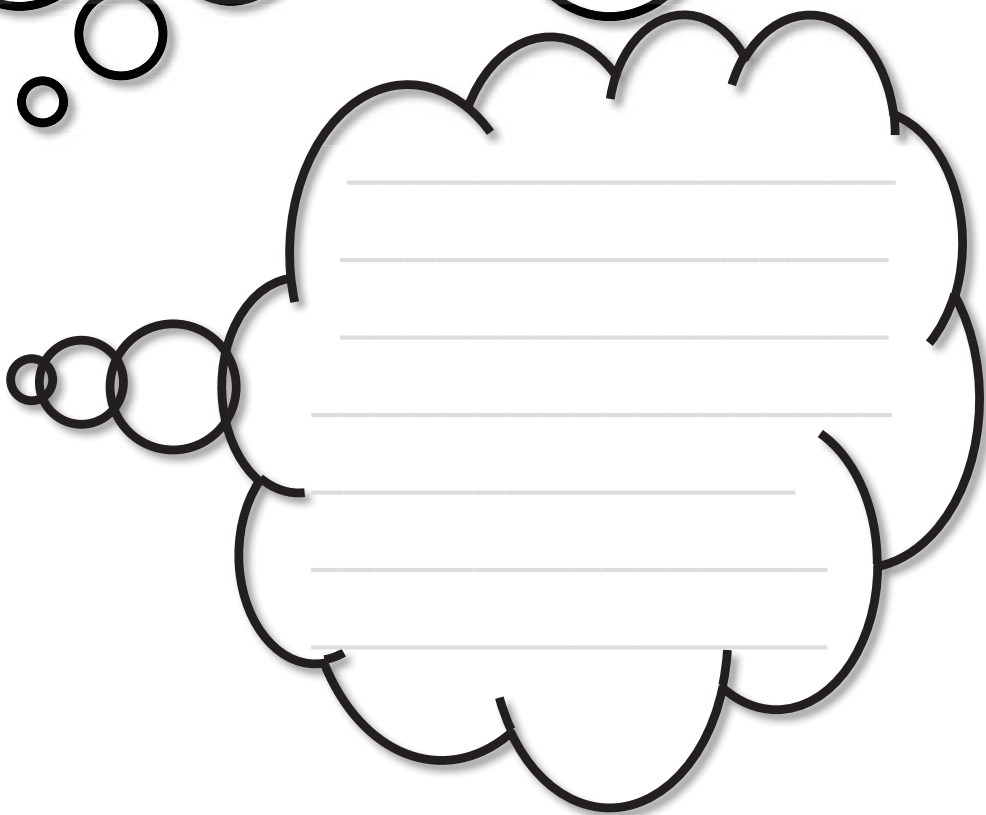

Name: _____

Dealing with anger

To fight angry thoughts, I could have tried these thoughts instead:

Two large, cloud-shaped thought bubbles with scalloped edges. Each bubble contains five horizontal lines for writing. The bubbles are connected to a person's head by a series of smaller circles of decreasing size.

A large, cloud-shaped thought bubble with scalloped edges, containing five horizontal lines for writing. It is connected to a person's head by a series of smaller circles of decreasing size.

DISCUSS IT

Conflict

1. What kinds of conflict are there?
 2. Do women fight more than men? Why? Why not?
 3. Do you think duels and fights are a good way to solve problems?
 4. Have you ever had a conflict with your neighbor? How did it resolve?
 5. Do religions say that conflict is okay in certain circumstances?
 6. Is there ever a good issue to fight over and to have conflict?
 7. How have things changed with fighting/conflict since your grandfather's time?
 8. Do sports like boxing, MMA, martial arts help or promote conflict and fights?
 9. Have you ever prevented a conflict among groups or persons?
 10. Do you think mankind is capable of "love thy neighbor"?
-

DISCUSS IT

Conflict

1. Why do people fight? What sort of things do people fight about?
2. What are some of the conflicts going around in the world today?
3. Have you ever had any conflict in your family? What happened?
4. Will we ever stop conflicts in the world?
5. What's the best way for couples to resolve a conflict?
6. Do third-parties or councillors helpful in resolving conflicts?
7. Would you challenge someone to fight or duel if they hurt your honor?
8. Do religions say that conflict is okay in certain circumstances?
9. How can we stop kids from getting into conflicts?
10. What in your opinion has been the world's greatest conflict ever?

Select a pet peeve and express yourself using the expressions provided.

Expressing Displeasure

... drives me crazy!

... bothers me a lot.

That's gross. Is gross.

.... sucks (big time).

I wouldn't ever

Only a would

I can't stand

I can't stand it when

How

.... makes me want to pull out my hair!

Common Pet Peeves

nose picking not flushing the toilet

nail biting rude people strong body odour

not phoning before a visit texting & driving chewing gum loudly eating with mouth open not washing hands nose blowing always late online ads cutting in line talking in a movie

no turn signal pushy salespeople littering

tailgating loud commercials slow internet

bad grammar too much perfume bad spelling

My biggest pet peeve is _____!

PET PEEVES - Thing you can't stand.

Discussion

Think of a predicament from your own experience. Tell it to the class. Describe the situation. Ask your classmates how to resolve it.

Example:

I'm in English class and the guy in front of me keeps turning around to talk to me. Constantly!
I'm at my wits end, he won't let me concentrate at all! What should I do? I can't stand it.

Please visit us!

The largest and most complete lesson library on the web.

ELT

Everything in English language teaching

FIND US ON

Teachers Pay Teachers