

I T ' S
F R E E

Free
To Give

Free
To Take

Sick Puppies – All The Same (Free Hugs)

I don't mind where you come from
As long as you come to me
I don't like illusions
I can't see them _____

I don't care; no, I wouldn't dare
To fix the twist in you
You've shown me eventually
What _____

I don't mind I don't care
As long as you're here

Go ahead, tell me you'll leave again
You'll just come back running
Holding your scarred heart in hand
It's all the _____
And I'll take you for who you are
If you take me for everything
Do it all over _____
It's all the same

Hours slide, and days go by
Till you decide to _____
And in between it always seems too long
All of a _____

And I have the skill, yeah, I have the will
To breathe you in while I can
However long you _____
Is all that I am

I don't mind I don't care
As long as you're here

Go ahead, tell me you'll leave again
You'll just come back running
Holding your scarred heart in hand
It's all the same
And I'll take you for who you are
If you take me for everything
Do it all over again
It's always the same

Wrong or right
Black or _____
If I close my eyes
It's all the _____

In my life
The compromise
I close my eyes
It's all the same

Go ahead, say it - you're leaving
You'll just come back running
Holding your scarred heart in hand
It's all the same
And I'll take you for who you are
If you take me for everything
Do it all over again
It's all the same

SONG FACTS

The lyrics of this song deal with a relationship that the narrator has that is going to pieces. His girl is ready to get up and leave, and he advises her to go ahead and go, just as long as she'll come back. He feels like the time apart will allow them both to handle the relationship better.

1. Do you know about the Free Hugs campaign?
2. Do you think it is a good idea?
3. Would you do this in your town / city?
4. Do you think there is enough love in the world?
5. What other ways might you let strangers know you love them?
6. Why do you think a hug feels so good?
7. When was the last time you hugged someone?
8. Go on! Give someone a hug. It doesn't cost anything. It's free!

Sick Puppies – All The Same (Free Hugs)

I don't mind where you come from
As long as you come to me
I don't like illusions
I can't see them clearly

I don't care; no, I wouldn't dare
To fix the twist in you
You've shown me eventually
What you'll do

I don't mind I don't care
As long as you're here

Go ahead, tell me you'll leave again
You'll just come back running
Holding your scarred heart in hand
It's all the same
And I'll take you for who you are
If you take me for everything
Do it all over again
It's all the same

Hours slide, and days go by
Till you decide to come
And in between it always seems too long
All of a sudden

And I have the skill, yeah, I have the will
To breathe you in while I can
However long you stay
Is all that I am

I don't mind I don't care
As long as you're here

Go ahead, tell me you'll leave again
You'll just come back running
Holding your scarred heart in hand
It's all the same
And I'll take you for who you are
If you take me for everything
Do it all over again
It's always the same

Wrong or right
Black or white
If I close my eyes
It's all the same

In my life
The compromise
I close my eyes
It's all the same

Go ahead, say it - you're leaving
You'll just come back running
Holding your scarred heart in hand
It's all the same
And I'll take you for who you are
If you take me for everything
Do it all over again
It's all the same

SONG FACTS

The lyrics of this song deal with a relationship that the narrator has that is going to pieces. His girl is ready to get up and leave, and he advises her to go ahead and go, just as long as she'll come back. He feels like the time apart will allow them both to handle the relationship better.

1. Do you know about the Free Hugs campaign?
2. Do you think it is a good idea?
3. Would you do this in your town / city?
4. Do you think there is enough love in the world?
5. What other ways might you let strangers know you love them?
6. Why do you think a hug feels so good?
7. When was the last time you hugged someone?
8. Go on! Give someone a hug. It doesn't cost anything. It's free!

