

Jamie Oliver makes pancakes

- 1) Who are the two girls?
- 2) What do they use for measurement?
- 3) What is the first ingredient they pour in?
- 4) Which flavors can you add?
- 5) How do you know that the pancakes are ready?
- 6) Complete the recipe:

First you _____ one cup of self-raising flour and _____ it in a bowl. Then you _____ one cup of milk and and a _____ of salt. Finally you _____ in one egg and _____ the whole batter with a whisker. Finally you can _____ in some pear or other fruit.

Then you _____ little piles of the batter into a heated pan with butter. When they are ready on both sides, you can _____ a spoonful of yogurt on top and _____ some honey on it.

measure – put - mix - pinch – pour (2x) - crack – drizzle - add – grate

Jamie Oliver makes pancakes

- 1) Who are the two girls?
- 2) What do they use for measurement?
- 3) What is the first ingredient they pour in?
- 4) Which flavors can you add?
- 5) How do you know that the pancakes are ready?
- 6) Complete the recipe:

First you _____ one cup of self-raising flour and _____ it in a bowl. Then you _____ one cup of milk and and a _____ of salt. Finally you _____ in one egg and _____ the whole batter with a whisker. Finally you can _____ in some pear or other fruit.

Then you _____ little piles of the batter into a heated pan with butter. When they are ready on both sides, you can _____ a spoonful of yogurt on top and _____ some honey on it.

measure – put - mix - pinch – pour (2x) - crack – drizzle - add – grate

Jamie Oliver makes pancakes

- 1) Who are the two girls? Jamie's daughters. Daisy and Poppy.
- 2) What do they use for measurement? A tortilla cup / mug.
- 3) What is the first ingredient they pour in? (self rising) flour.
- 4) Which flavors can you add? Pear. Raspberry. Kiwi. Banana. Strawberry.
- 5) How do you know that the pancakes are ready? Looks heavenly, lovely.
- 6) Complete the recipe:

First you MEASURE one cup of self-raising flour and ADD it in a bowl. Then you POUR in one cup of milk and a PINCH of salt. Finally you CRACK in one egg and MIX the whole batter with a whisker. Finally you can GRATE in some pear or other fruit.

Then you POUR little piles of the batter into a heated pan with butter. When they are ready on both sides, you can PUT a spoonful of yogurt on top and DRIZZLE some honey on it.

measure – put - mix - pinch – pour (2x) - crack – drizzle - add – grate