

The Holocaust

The Holocaust was a terrible time when many people were killed. These were people that didn't do anything wrong.

There were about 10 million men, women and children that died in the Holocaust during World War 2.

A lot of the people that were killed in the Holocaust were Jewish.

They have their own religion, language, culture.

Some people had to wear the “star of David” during the Holocaust, so that everyone knew they were Jewish.

Other people that were killed had disabilities, or were Romani (Gypsy).

The Nazis of Germany believed only the German race were “pure” and the best.

The Nazi rulers of the Holocaust thought they should exterminate people that were different.

Undesirable people were taken away by trains and sent to far away places.

The people killed in the Holocaust were first sent to concentration camps. It was really bad there.

Many were killed by gas immediately.
Others were forced to work as slave labor.

There was almost no food, bad beds, and lots of sickness with no medicine. It was like the worst prison possible.

There were lots of concentration camps in Europe.
This is a map of all the places where people were locked up.

All people in concentration camps were marked with an identifying tattoo.

Sometimes families were separated.
Children missed their family and were very sad.

Famous people like Anne Frank were victims of the Holocaust. Anne wrote in her diary while hiding.

She was hiding to stay out of a concentration camp. She was killed for being Jewish when she was a teenager.

The Holocaust was one of the reasons for World War II.
People from all over the world fought really hard for a long time.

There were bombs and soldiers in lots of places in Europe. There were airplanes and tanks.

During World War II, the concentration camps were liberated. People were set free.

People everywhere now remember the Holocaust.
There are books, statues and museums about it.

We must remember.
People hope nothing terrible like the Holocaust will ever happen again.

Take The Quiz

1. Each person in a camp was given an identifying ...

tattoo          uniform

2. Most Jews had to wear the ...

Star of David          Jewish Star

3. Jews were put in ... camps.

prison          concentration

4. Anne Frank wrote in her ...

notebook          diary

