

Things We Often Borrow Or Lend

What things do people commonly borrow or lend? List and compare answers.

"Lend" and "Borrow"

Lend is used when the person of the sentence is giving the item to another (person) to use...
ALSO: Lend almost always is accompanied by an "object pronoun" in the sentence. – "He lent her, He lent a camera to her... etc"

Borrow is used when the person in the sentences is asking or being "lent"/given something to use and almost NEVER has an object pronoun in the sentence. You cannot say... "He borrowed me, he borrowed to me... etc"

Example:

Object Pronoun

Karen lends Tom her bike every Tuesday. = She is allowing/giving permission to Tom to use her bike.

versus

Karen borrows a bike every Tuesday. = She is being "lent" or given permission to use another's bike.

Now do the exercises

- Mrs. Johnson us her garage to park our lorry on weekends.
- Andy wanted to fifty dollars for his school trip to the city.
- Are you going to your mother's camera for the trip?
- Is your mother going to you her camera?
- Don't bother coming if you won't us a hand with the painting.
- Can I the car for the weekend, please?
- He's going tohis cousins his flat in New York for the summer.
- Did Johnny the money to buy his new motorbike?
- I think that I'll have to..... a cup of flour from my neighbour.
- Did youMary your MP3 player? Yes, sheit on Friday.
- Ann didn't us office space for the staff meeting yesterday.
- "Why don't you Peter's cell phone to call for a taxi?"
- Mr. Grady wanted to some garden tools to to Anna.

Answer Key

- Mrs. Johnson lent us her garage to park our lorry on weekends.
- Andy wanted to borrow fifty dollars for his school trip to the city.
- Are you going to borrow your mother's camera for the trip?
- Is your mother going to lend you her camera?
- Don't bother coming if you won't lend us a hand with the painting.
- Can I borrow the car for the weekend, please?
- He's going to borrow his cousins his flat in New York for the summer.
- Did Johnny borrow the money to buy his new motorbike?
- I think that I'll have to borrow a cup of flour from my neighbour.
- Did you lend Mary your MP3 player? Yes, she borrowed it on Friday.
- Ann didn't lend us office space for the staff meeting yesterday.
- "Why don't you borrow Peter's cell phone to call for a taxi?"
- Mr. Grady wanted to borrow some garden tools to lend to Anna.

Lend or Borrow?

1. Could you _____ me some money, please?
 2. Some pupils can _____ books from their school.
 3. Will you _____ me your umbrella till tomorrow?
 4. Should I _____ him my football?
 5. You may _____ my bike, but be careful.
 6. Could I _____ your cup?
 7. You can _____ your book to Steve.
 8. Why do students _____ so much money from their parents?
 9. Peter won't _____ his car to anyone.
 10. Will your mother _____ you some money?
-

1. Could you lend me some money, please?
2. Some pupils can borrow books from their school.
3. Will you lend me your umbrella till tomorrow?
4. Should I lend him my football?
5. You may borrow my bike, but be careful.
6. Could I borrow your cup?
7. You can lend your book to Steve.
8. Why do students borrow so much money from their parents?
9. Peter won't lend his car to anyone.
10. Will your mother lend you some money?