

FROZEN OUT

You don't know where I am.
What I'm doing
What I'm looking for.

You don't even really know who I am.
Unfair, isn't it?

I know practically the entire story of you.
Yet all you know of my story is a faint outline ... a mess of my distortions, half-truths, pretenses, white lies.

So... Where am I? Who am I? What am I looking for?

I'm looking for my story... ...one that can happen here. Here. Here. Or here... I'm looking for it. I'm looking...

They've told you many times by now: 'Don't shame our family,' 'like Brother did.'
'Don't think a boy liking a boy,' 'or girl liking a girl,' 'is "special".' 'Don't run away because of so-called sadness.'

I've run away so many times ... Once for an entire year ... when I wasn't much older than you are now. Was that year the result of my ..."problem"? Or the start of it?
Whatever 'it' was. Or is.

Of course, most importantly: 'Don't abandon your motherland.'

I left home, just as home was being "improved." Crushed. Razed. Replaced. Even your favorite little green patch ... will be ripped up.

When I go back. If I go back ... Home ... won't be home anymore. You won't be you. I suppose Brother won't be Brother either.

Then again, I never was.
