Once upon a time there were 3 large birds that lived in a big tree.

One day a small bird came and asked to live with them. The 3 birds said, "NO" and so the small bird flew away.

A man came in a truck. He walked to the tree with his axe and cut down the tree with the 3 birds. All that was left was a stump!

The 3 birds talked. Where would they live now? They decided to follow the man to his home.

The 3 birds lived outside the man's home. One day, they heard a lot of noise. Then, the man walked outside and at the back of the house put up a beautiful bird house.

The 3 big birds were happy. A new home! But when they tried to fit inside, the bird house was too small! They didn't fit inside.

The small bird came. He was just the perfect size for the bird house. He now had a new, beautiful home and was very happy!
