

LET'S DISCUSS READING

1. What types of books do you like to read?
2. What's better - the book or the movie? Why?
3. Name 10 different things we can read?
4. Why is reading important? What happens if you can't read?
5. What is the best way to learn to read another language?
6. Do you have a favorite author? Who? Why do you like them?
7. Did your parents read to you when you were young? What?
8. What was the last book you read? What was it about?
9. Do you have a favorite place where you like to read?
10. Which do you prefer, paper books or ebooks? Why?
11. If you could bring just one book to a deserted island, which one?
12. When do you like to have learning material?
13. Why do some people find it hard to read?
14. What qualities make a good reader?
15. What do you get out of reading? Why is it important?

THINGS WE READ

Types of books, texts, genres of reading.

A collection of 12 empty circles of various sizes, arranged in a roughly circular pattern. The largest circle is in the center, and the others are of varying diameters, some being very small and others nearly as large as the central one. These circles are intended for students to write down different types of books, texts, or genres they read.

NOTES
