

My Dad

by Anthony Browne

He's all right my dad.

My dad isn't afraid of anything even the big bad wolf.

He can jump right over the moon and walk on a tightrope without falling off.

He can wrestle with giants or win the father's day race on sports day easily.

He's alright my dad.

My dad can eat like a horse and he can swim like a fish.

He's as strong as a gorilla and as happy as a hippopotamus.

He's all right my dad.

My dad's as big as a house and as soft as my teddy.

He's as wise as an owl except when he tries to help.

He's all right my dad.

My dad's a great dancer and a brilliant singer.

He's fantastic at soccer and he makes me laugh a lot.

I love my dad and you know what?

He loves me and he always will.

My Dad, Your Dad

My dad's fatter than your dad,
Yes, my dad's fatter than yours:
If he eats any more he won't fit in the house,
He'll have to live out of doors.

Yes, but my dad's balder than your dad,
My dad's balder, OK,
He's only got two hairs left on his head
And both are turning grey.

Ah, but my dad's thicker than your dad,
My dad's thicker, all right.
He has to look at his watch to see
If it's noon or the middle of the night.

Yes, but my dad's more boring than your dad.
If he ever starts counting sheep
When he can't get to sleep at night, he finds
It's the sheep that go to sleep.

But my dad doesn't mind your dad.
Mine quite likes yours too.
I suppose they don't always think much of US!
That's true, I suppose, that's true.
