

Little Dog's Rhapsody in the Night

by Mary Oliver

He puts his cheek against mine and makes small, expressive sounds.
And when I'm awake, or awake enough
he turns upside down, his four paws
in the air and his eyes dark and fervent.
"Tell me you love me," he says.
"Tell me again."
Could there be a sweeter arrangement? Over and over he gets to ask.
I get to tell.

NAME: _____

A Dog Story

Write a story about a dog. What kind of dog is it? What happened to the dog?
