The Seven Deadly Sins ▷

These 'sins' started way back in Christian teachings as a list of bad behaviors to avoid. But they're also super useful for learning English because they're powerful, descriptive words!

---

1. Pride (🕸)
Pride means thinking you're better than everyone else. Too much pride can make you arrogant.

- Synonyms: arrogance, ego, vanity.

- Example: 'She never apologizes because her pride won't let her.'"

---

2. Greed (💰)
Greed is wanting way more than you need, especially money or stuff.

- Synonyms: selfishness, avarice.

- Example: 'His greed made him work 100 hours a week—he couldn't stop!'"

---

3. Lust (🌿)
Lust is strong, uncontrolled sexual desire. Note: It's not the same as love!

- Synonyms: desire, passion (but in a wild way).

- Example: 'The movie villain was driven by lust for power.'"

---

4. Envy (😣)
Envy is jealousy—wanting what someone else has AND feeling bitter about it.

- Synonyms: jealousy, resentment.

- Example: 'She felt envy when her friend bought a new car.'"

5. Gluttony (🍔)
Gluttony isn't just eating too much—it's overdoing anything (food, drinks, even Netflix!).

- Synonyms: overindulgence, excess.

- Example: 'After Thanksgiving, his gluttony left him on the couch for hours!'"

6. Wrath (😠)

Wrath means extreme, violent anger—think revenge or rage.

- Synonyms: fury, hatred.

- Example: 'The hero fought the villain with wrath in his eyes.'"

---

7. Sloth (☐)

Sloth is laziness—not just chilling, but never doing what you should.

- Synonyms: laziness, idleness.

- Example: 'His sloth was so bad, he ordered food instead of walking to the fridge!'"

Which sin do you think is the WORST? Why do you think so? Write your argument and explanation below.
