

Friends Plant 10,000 Trees

I am his hand, and he is my eye. Together, the two of us have planted these trees.

Yeli Village, China.

In 2,000 I lost the sight of both eyes. My buddy, Jia Wenqui, he lost his arms in childhood. He has been carrying me on his back, across the river for 13 years. We are best friends.

Jia Wenqui and I have been planting trees since 2002. In the past, this was a wasteland. Nothing but cobblestones and sand.

We planted all the trees for the environment and for future generations. Planting trees has become an important mission of ours. It may be hard financially but we are so delighted spiritually.

There are more than 10,000 of them. They're like green soldiers. They are guarding our beautiful village.

When we work together, we don't feel disabled at all. We're a team.
